1.4.400

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, November 4, 2006 12:33pm in Ladbroke Grove Internet Cafe, London

www.unc.bz

1. Did you think it was easy, that it would be fun, delightening? Or hard and death defying, death walking through; again and again not but one final time. I love you. Walketh in thou me alone or with others thought so close so far away? Walketh in me thou alone. I love you.

2. Into me see. Become. And let all things fly, not; but you will/we will; at midnight not, before. And all my words are true and amen and not all like them but will see them regardless, seeing my word they will/have to and be not ashamed of one or not one thought, lift your head high not but walking in humility only, of no reputation making yourself, nor apologizing for truth, reveal me in it/me. I love you. I give you me.

3. I've given you my word, my kingdom; are they different or the same being? Am I my word/kingdom and kingdom word being word that offends/invokes reaction? Yea, to many, some, yet my word stands. I love you all. I love you now.

4. Walk me unashamedly and hang your head low, not; but being me/one, be me alone. There is no other but me. I am my voice/kingdom/one with father, being father. I am one. You are. We are revealing the kingdom to kingdom ones that reveal now the kingdom far and wide to farther generations than imaginable at this moment/point. I love you.

5. Walk in humility personified and die not to death, but to life, having/entering true life once and for all, not for all, but whosoever will see the truth in these words at first, not; but surrender will, becoming my will/father many will. I love you all. We are one.

6. All present and accounted for sir. Thank you. The feast is ready. The north south east and west are here/ready. All is prepared. The skies greet you/thee. Now and forever.

Amen